T. J. RAIN, Agt. Shoals.

If, as appears now quite probable, Andrew Johnson shall be returned to the Senate, his advent in that body will be an event of great interest not only to the Senate, but to the whole country. It would be to him an extraordinary personal triumph, and would afford him an opportunity to meet face to face, and on equal terms, those who voted him guilty of "high crimes and misdemeanors." Little Colfax will be daily reminded of the time when, for three months, he marched daily at the head of the Radical procession from the other end of the Capitol, to accuse the President "in the NAME OF ALL THE PEOPLE." Butler and Bingham will feel their pride so wounded, and will be so shocked to have the "GREATEST CRIMINAL OF THE AGE" in the Senate, that they will probably institute an inquiry in the House as to whether Tennessee has been properly reconstructed. How mean and sneaking will Sumner, Morton, Cameron, Sherman and Company feel as the victim of their malignant persecution takes his seat among them. Andy will be able to show to the country and to the whole world who the conspirators and underlings were that deserve banishment to private life. He will be the peer of his fellows in point of ability, and already the people are satisfied that his integrity, honesty, and patriotism are far beyond those of any member of "THE HIGH COURT OF IMPEACHMENT" who voted for his conviction. The present generation will not have passed away until their names will be a stench in the nostrils of honest men. [Cincinnati Enquirer.]

The marriage of the daughter of Professor Hunt, of Harvard University, to a son of Fred. Douglass is giving some people, who are not at all concerned in it, a great deal of uneasiness. We have the authority of Vanity Fair for saying that a Hottentot Venus once flourished in London society, and there is no good reason why a dusky Adonis should be refused similar honors. But these are affairs of the heart, and what's the use of protesting?—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Mr. FREDERICK DOUGLASS, JR., recently married a daughter of Mr. A. Molyneux Hewlett, of Harvard University. Some of the papers have stated that the bride's father is a white man, and a Professor in the college. This is not the case. Mr. Molyneux is mulatto. He was formerly a prize-fighter of considerable repute in England, and is now instructor in gymnastics at Harvard. But, if he were white, and his daughter and Mr. Douglass were suited to each other, why should any fault be found with the marriage? [New York Sun.]

In 1856, when Buchanan was elected President, the Democratic vote was 1,803,029. In 1860, the combined vote of Douglas and Breckinridge was 2,213,927. In 1864, the vote for McClellan, without the vote of any of the Southern States, was 1,811,754; in 1868, the vote for Seymour was 2,706,631, almost a million larger than the vote for Buchanan in 1856, and 483,596 more than the vote for Lincoln in 1864. This will do very well for a dead party. The people are gradually coming back to their first love and the support of the old Democratic faith—the Union of the States and the rights of the States—a Union of equal States upon the basis of the Constitution [Detroit Free Press.]

MASONIC.—Ireland Lodge, No. 388, of the Masons, was duly installed on Thursday of last week. The installation ceremonies of the officers were public and were witnessed by several hundred persons. An address was delivered by Mr. Levi Ferguson, Esq., of Petersburg, on the occasion. The following are the officers—M—O. F. Hobbs, S. W.—R. Horton, J. W.—L. R. Taylor, T—A. Thomas, S—B. H. Friesland; Sr. D.—E. J. A. Gleazen; Junior D.—R. M. Welman; Tyler—W. Monroe.

The bridge across the ditch on South Main Street is nearly completed, and looks like it will be a substantial structure, but we are fearful the span is not near as wide as it should be, as when Patoka is high a large volume of water passes through there.

The series of railroad meetings in Harrison county which began last week have been of the most gratifying character to the friends of the enterprise. The people of Harrison county, the Corydon Republican says, are being aroused to their interests, and we have every hope that they will embrace the present opportunity to make the county prosperous. [New Albany Commercial.]

NEW PIANOS.—Our musical fellow-citizens Messrs H. A. Holtzhaus and M. Friedman, have each purchased fine pianos this Spring, and their sweet melody adds greatly to the attractiveness of their respective neighborhoods.

Nearly one-third of the population of France live in cities.
